CATHOLIC
NEW HAMPSHIRE

Dear friends,

“Remember not the events of the past, the things of long ago consider not; See, I am doing something new! Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? In the wilderness I make my way, in the wasteland, rivers.”

Isaiah 43:18-19

One of the primary themes of Catholic Social Teaching is the “Life and Dignity of the Human Person”. It is the belief that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person.

As you read through the following pages, you will experience many examples of lives being enhanced through the work of those on the front lines at Catholic Charities NH. You will read about moments that were life-changing, moments of great joy, and moments that are made possible by the tireless dedication of people who care.

You are part of these stories, through your kind and generous spirit. Thank you for your response to those in need, and for all you do in service to our Lord and His people here in New Hampshire.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Peter A. Libasci
Bishop of Manchester

Dear Friends,

Moments that matter. This makes me think of Martha and Mary from Luke’s Gospel (Luke 10:38-42), from a Sunday homily a couple of months ago. I was embarrassed by my realization of how easily I connected with Martha’s experience. Especially during this time of pandemic, it was easy to relate to her feeling “burdened with much service,” and the accompanying overwhelming feelings and sometimes even anxiety in our trying to meet every need, save every soul and please every stakeholder during this frenetic time. Also, over the past year, the resulting noise from some dissonant and disparate voices pulled us away from the center (our mission), leaving us sometimes deflated. Then I thought of Mary – and her response to Jesus. She sat and listened, waiting for Him to speak. And she trusted that, through Him, all would be well.

During this time when it’s incredibly easy to be distracted by all of life’s noise, it can be easy to forget to be like Mary and remember the moments that matter, the many Christ moments that reflect who we are and how we evangelize through our work and programs at Catholic Charities NH – through the healing and compassionate hands of our healthcare workers, through Brandy’s journey toward sobriety, motherhood and a second chance to give back, or through Clement’s epic graduation from St. Charles School, which you can read more about in this report. Thanks be to God for the grace that abounds in our wonderful staff!

Finally, for all of you who continue to support us year-after-year, as we continue to adapt and respond to changing and evolving needs around our state, I thank you. Your trust in us and belief in our work make every moment matter and every moment incredible because they reflect the transformative changes experienced by those we serve – all made possible because of Y.O.U! God is good.

In gratitude and with a prayer for God’s blessings,

“I was going out into the world for the first time. Yes, it was a bit nerve-wracking and overwhelming, but I felt so proud of myself and what I accomplished to get to this point. It was such an amazing feeling.”

- Jolie

“You are Giving us a Safe Place to Live”

Where were you when you were 19 years old?

Most likely not suddenly a new mom, homeless, and scrambling to find a roof over your head. And probably not filling out forms for Section 8 Housing or trying to get a GED so you could graduate high school like the rest of your peers.

But that’s exactly what life was like for Jolie and her baby boy when she came across New Generation, the newest program of Catholic Charities NH that provides emergency shelter, transitional housing and supportive services for pregnant women – as well as single mothers and children – who are facing homelessness, substance use and other life challenges.

New Generation helps families like Jolie’s work toward meaningful change. For Jolie, that meant getting a stable job, graduating high school and finally having a safe place that she and her son could finally call home. Milestones that many of us take for granted!

Luckily, Jolie and her baby didn’t fall through the cracks. And her son now has his own bed to sleep on.

Thanks to the generous support of our donors, New Generation exists to give this high school grad and new mother – and many others like her – an opportunity to turn her life around with a future to be excited about.

Gratitude in Getting His Life Back

How does a small business owner go from producing hardware for the International Space Station to multiple DUIs?

Easy: the unforgiving cycle of alcoholism.

Doug is like the guy down the street: the person you pass in aisle four while looking for your favorite cereal. He's also the veteran who has silently struggled with a cycle of alcohol dependence for years.

Several years (and many relapses) later, he's not out of the woods, but he's closer than he's ever been – because of your support.

Doug's turning point was when he found Liberty House, a program of Catholic Charities NH, which provides transitional housing and assistance for veterans facing homelessness, substance use and other life struggles. When he walked in, he recognized that Liberty House was unlike the other stops on his recovery journey. He felt comfortable and part of something bigger.

Through Liberty House's four-step program, Doug built accountability, structure and discipline into his life. He has a full-time job and is moving ever closer to becoming fully independent.

What once seemed impossible is now possible. Doug is grateful for every moment at Liberty House because he knows that each day is another chance to get his life back.

“There was a lot of pain and despair in my life, but Liberty House helped me recognize how far I’ve come and how hopeful I am. I accept the past is the past. What matters most is where I am in the present. When I wake up and take my head off the pillow, I have everything I need and control my day by how I think about it. I know I’m going to be okay.”

- Doug

The Perfect Proud Moment

A child's education is pretty straightforward: K-12 and they're done, right?

Not exactly.

What if your child has emotional or behavioral challenges? Or trouble coping inside a setting that makes them uncomfortable?

The truth is, many children struggle with feeling heard – or seen – especially when their trials aren't like everyone else's.

Now imagine the magnitude of Clement in his eighth-grade cap and gown. It was a moment of achievement and pride because of St. Charles School in Rochester, a program of Catholic Charities NH.

Through St. Charles' specialized services and a compassionate learning environment, children like Clement better connect with others, develop more positive behaviors, and start reaching their potential, both inside and outside the classroom.

This means that more children get to experience school the same way their peers do, like Clement, who is off to high school.

We think that's definitely something worth celebrating.

“Working with these women and children who come in so vulnerable, and then watching them walk out of here with housing and employment, loving themselves, and being the parents they want to be, is the best feeling in the world.”

- Brandy

Giving Back by “Walking in Their Shoes”

Imagine going from down-and-out to lifted up.

From substance misuse to self-reliance.

That’s exactly what happened for Brandy and her child after entering New Generation, the Catholic Charities NH program where pregnant and single mothers facing homelessness and other life challenges get back on their feet and build self-sufficient futures with stable housing and jobs.

Gone were her days of self-medicating after a painful back surgery. Gone were her run-ins with the law and threats of jail time.

For the first time in a long time, Brandy had help, guidance and the confidence to get back on her feet.

And she’s not finished!

Brandy not only turned her life around but made it her mission to help other New Generation clients as she has “walked a mile in their shoes.” Today, she is the program’s family services manager.

We’re proud to have Brandy on our team to continue moving lives forward!

“Without this Assistance, I Might Crumble”

A quick trip to the market down the street to get milk.
Or a ride to the doctor’s appointment.

These seemingly simple tasks are unfortunately not an option for homebound seniors who are trying to remain in their homes and be independent

Many live alone, without friends or family nearby, and are on fixed incomes. They are simply unable to find or afford a ride.

Since her husband passed away two years ago, life has become more difficult for Elaine.

Thanks to our generous volunteers at CareGivers, a program of Catholic Charities NH, Elaine is able to get monthly grocery deliveries, rides to her oncology appointments and the realization that she is truly never alone. Even more, she does not have to make hard sacrifices – like choosing between filling prescriptions or having food in the cabinets – that too many seniors face today.

Which make moments like Elaine’s bright smile, even more rewarding.

“I cannot imagine CareGivers not being in my life. Without them, I would not have the groceries that I need. Being alone, it can be tough financially and there are those bills that do not go away. I have to pay rent, electricity and my oncology bills. Without the assistance from CareGivers, I might crumble.”

- Elaine

CCNH Dedicates Trudy's Center for Family Support

Sunday, June 6th, 2021, was a special day for the Our Place pregnancy and parenting education program, with a lasting legacy sure to impact the hundreds of children and families who will come through its doors in search of support in the years to come.

The Manchester Our Place office was officially dedicated as the new Trudy's Center for Family Support, named after Gertrude (Trudy) Dutile, a former Hooksett resident who passed away in 1999 at the young age of 59. Trudy's husband, Richard Dutile, stepped forward to make a legacy gift in her honor to support the many women and children served through various Catholic Charities NH programs.

"Trudy was an incredibly generous, compassionate and beautiful human being who always put children and family first," said Richard Dutile. "She was a mother, a wife, a sister and a friend who was kind to all she knew and met. Having her name associated with a program that helps create safe and secure environments for babies, children and families is the perfect way to pay tribute to her and her legacy."

Mardi Gras a Huge Success!

While we were unable to gather in person once again for the 16th Annual Mardi Gras, that certainly did not stop us from taking the N'awlins vibe online while having plenty of fun and netting more than $185,000 to support our New Hampshire neighbors facing some of their darkest days.

Held March 1st, the special event featured exclusive "viewer only" raffle prizes, a virtual gamebook with prizes and an online auction with amazing trips, fun family outings, plenty of gift cards and more!

A huge thanks to our sponsors, including Presenting Sponsor CGI Business Solutions and Streaming Sponsor Harvard Pilgrim Health Care, for helping to make Mardi Gras another smashing success! We are looking forward to the return of Mardi Gras in person February 11th, 2023, at the Doubletree in Manchester.

New Generation Becomes CCNH's Newest Program

Another year, another big program addition! New Generation joined the Catholic Charities NH family as our first residential facility for women and children, building on our wide range of services strengthening families and creating safe, nurturing environments for children statewide.

Based in Greenland, NH, New Generation is where pregnant women and single mothers with young children – who are facing homelessness and other major life barriers – can come, dream about a new beginning and build the lives they want to live.

Through its family-oriented shelter, transitional housing and a variety of support programs, New Generation connects residents to employment and a supportive community with access to essentials needed for nurturing family development. It also offers intensive case management, life-skills coaching, parenting education and aftercare services, providing mothers with the skills to build long-term stability for their family.

Catholic Charities NH plans to expand the services New Generation offers mothers and their children to include direct access to other Catholic Charities NH programs and wraparound services such as emergency assistance, mental health counseling, pregnancy and parenting education, referral services and more.

Liberty House Earns NHCORR Level Three Certification

It was a big milestone last summer for Liberty House, the Catholic Charities NH program providing transitional housing for veterans, which earned the status of Certified Recovery Residence Level 3 from the New Hampshire Coalition of Recovery Residences.

Liberty House is now one of only 15 NHCORR Level Three service providers in the state under the National Alliance of Recovery Residences' Code of Ethics, which signifies programs committed to peer recovery support, staff-monitored structure and structured rehabilitation life skill development. Liberty House was also recognized for fostering healthy and safe homelike environments that promote purpose, community and recovery.

Monadnock at Home Expands Services to More Seniors

This past year brought great news to more seniors wishing to remain independent in their homes and thrive in their communities with the expansion of our Monadnock at Home program.

The membership program, which provides seniors with home maintenance assistance, transportation and food delivery, as well as access to unique social opportunities, opened its services to residents of Greenfield and Temple for the first time.

Monadnock at Home services are also available for individuals residing in Dublin, Fitzwilliam, Hancock, Harrisville, Jaffrey, Marlborough, New Ipswich, Peterborough, Rindge and Sharon.

Pathways Forward for Five Inspiring Nurses

“Never give up on your dreams, no matter how difficult the journey may be.”

Despite a long journey with barriers and doubts, five NH residents are finally on their way to seeing their dreams come true, made possible through donor support.

Each is part of Catholic Charities’ unique Pathways program, which provides career advancement and personal growth opportunities for select Catholic Charities NH Healthcare Services employees. All five received full-tuition scholarships to attend a full-time Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) degree program at Harmony Health Care Institute in Merrimack, as well as textbooks and uniforms.

Some put their careers on hold to raise a family. Others simply did not have the practical or financial means to pursue an advanced degree. But because of you, they are now able to pursue their career ambitions.

Beyond the LPN scholarship, other Pathways opportunities include full financial assistance for entry-level candidates and unit aides pursuing a Licensed Nursing Assistant (LNA) Certificate program and select scholarship opportunities for LPNs seeking a Registered Nurse (RN) degree.

2021 Report To The Community

In 2021, the New Hampshire Food Bank continued its efforts to meet those facing food insecurity in their own communities with our Mobile Food Pantry program.

Continuing the drive-thru model first established in 2020 with the help of the New Hampshire National Guard, this program helped the Food Bank reach nearly 125,000 people experiencing hunger. In 2021, our mobile food pantry program held 122 distributions in towns and cities located in all ten NH counties.

In total, these events distributed 2,598,904 pounds of fresh produce and shelf-stable essentials to more than 42,245 households in 2021, providing approximately 2,165,753 meals to hundreds of thousands of Granite Staters.

As with everything we do, the generous support of organizations and individuals is critical in our fight against hunger here in NH. We are grateful to Bank of New Hampshire, who partnered with us to generously sponsor one mobile food pantry each week beginning in April 2021 through March 2022. At year's end, they had sponsored 38 mobile food pantries in 9 of NH's 10 counties and provided volunteers to help us safely and effectively distribute to those in need.

Additionally, the following organizations sponsored individual mobile food pantry distributions in their regions: New England Electric Cooperative Foundation, the Newfound Area Charitable Fund and Vail Resorts.

We also could not do what we do without our volunteers. Thousands of individuals volunteered at mobile food pantries throughout the year, helping to distribute food, take information or direct traffic. They showed up in the rain, snow, wind and heat to make sure their neighbors had enough to eat and we are grateful for their continued support and hard work.

“During the pandemic we lost a lot of hours, and being a single mom [the mobile food pantry food] helps tremendously, especially now that the kids are back in school. Some of my kids are back in school, some of them are not. So it helps to supplement their school food. I love it.”

Our Mission

The Mission of the New Hampshire Food Bank is to feed hungry people by soliciting and effectively distributing grocery products and perishable foods, and offering innovative programs through a statewide network of approved agencies; by advocating for systemic change; and by educating the public about the nature of, and solutions to, problems of hunger in New Hampshire.

7% of men, women and children in NH are food insecure

More Than 400 partner agencies (food pantries, homeless shelters, soup kitchens, children's programs, senior centers and more) across NH

Approximately 50% of food distributed by our partner agencies comes from the NH Food Bank

2022 NHFB Goals

- Build upon our success in distributing more product in the North Country by acquiring a physical presence with a warehouse to store and distribute more fresh and local product.
- Utilize Forward Contracting with our NH Farmers under our "NH Feeding NH" program to secure more local protein and culturally appropriate foods for our 400+ partner agencies to distribute to our food insecure.
